Senior Award

Awarded to one or more worthy senior women of ISU who have been partially self-supporting, have maintained an acceptable but not necessarily top-ranking scholarship and have contributed to University and/or community life.

Pat Miller Memorial Award

Same criteria as the Senior Award.

International Award

Awarded to one or more deserving graduate or upper-class women of Iowa State University with good grades, who possess qualities of leadership, character and personality enabling them to foster international understanding and to interpret our American way of life to the people of their countries. This award is intended to be an honor more than a grant based on financial need.

Mrs. Glenn Murphy International Award

The International Award criteria apply to this award. However, this recipient is encouraged to return to her own country and work in her academic discipline. A student who has received another ISU Women's Club Award is not eligible for this award.

Opal Marie Boyd

June 6, 1909—
September 16, 2009

Opal Marie Boyd, 100, passed away Wednesday, Sept. 16, 2009, at Northcrest Health Care Center in Ames. A memorial service will be at 10:30 a.m. Monday, Oct. 26, at Northcrest. The Rev. Stacy Jones, of Northminster Presbyterian Church, will officiate.

She was born June 6, 1909, in Boone County, to Leslie R. and Elizabeth Otto Boyd. She grew up on the family farm. She graduated from Jordan High School and attended Iowa State College, where she was a member of the Alpha Delta Pi sorority. Later, she was employed by the ISU Department of Engineering.

She married Robert Boyd, a chemical engineer, on Jan. 23, 1937, in Ames. The couple soon moved to Brooklyn, N.Y., and later to Mountainside, N.J. They also lived in Louisville, Ky., and Niagara Falls, N.Y.

She took great pride in her family and her homes. Her family all benefitted greatly from her devotion and success in her role as wife, mother and homemaker. She was the heartbeat of the family. She also enjoyed bridge, bowling, and playing golf with her many friends. She was an active volunteer for the Girl Scouts of America.

In 1967, she returned to Ames with her husband, who worked for Iowa State University Extension Service until his final retirement in 1974.

In Ames, she was active in the Mary Greeley Auxiliary, the Faculty Women's Club and the Ames Woman's Club, where she was president from 1983 to 1984. She was a member of Northminster Presbyterian Church.

She loved to paint in her free time. She painted numerous scenes from her travels in the United States and abroad. She also enjoyed needlework.

She is survived by her two daughters, Barbara Stewart, of Whitefish, Mont., and Marilyn Burgeon and her husband, John, of Stratford, Conn. Other survivors include grandsons, Michael Stewart, of Arlington, Va., Andrew Stewart, of Boston, Mass., and Benjamin Burgeon, of Stratford, Conn.; sister-in-law, Theo Anderson, of Boone; and several nieces and nephews.

Shirley A. Christian

June 5, 1938—
Oct. 17, 2009

Shirley A. Christian, 71, of Ames, died Saturday, Oct. 17, 2009, at Israel Family Hospice House in Ames. A gathering of friends and family will be from 4 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 20, at Grandon Funeral and Cremation Care, 414 Lincoln Way, in Ames. A celebration of life service will be at 11 a.m. Wednesday, Oct. 21, at St. Andrew's Lutheran Church, 209 Colorado Ave., in Ames. Burial will be at a later date.

Shirley was born June 5, 1938, in Cedar Falls, the daughter of Carl P. and Edna (Miller) Miller. She graduated from Hudson High School and attended Wartburg College. Shirley married Allen E. Christian Dec. 12, 1959, in Cedar Falls. The couple then moved to Ames. She was employed as a bank teller at University Bank and Trust before going to work at Iowa State Center as assistant box office manager, retiring in 2000. She was a member of St. Andrew's Lutheran Church and Iowa State University Women's Club. She was a gourmet cook, a Cyclone fan, enjoyed entertaining and helping family and friends organizing events.

She is survived by her husband, Allen; one son, Chad (Darsi) Christian, of Ames; one daughter, Jennifer (Jim) Haidu, of North Barrington, Ill.; four grandsons, Spencer and Parker Christian, and Grant and Bennett Haidu; and one sister, Luella Larsen, of Cedar Falls.

She was preceded in death by her parents and a brother.

Joan Dorothy Kluge

Jan. 17, 1938—
Aug. 16, 2009

Joan Dorothy Kluge, of Ames, died Sunday, Aug. 16, 2009, at Mary Greeley Medical Center in Ames. She battled leukemia for more than 10 years and lost her life to a viral encephalitis infection. A celebration of life service will be at 1:30 p.m. Friday, Aug. 21, at Memorial Lutheran Church in Ames. The service will be followed by a tea reception at the church.

Joan Dorothy Kluge was born Jan. 17, 1938, in St. Louis, Mo. She graduated in 1956 from Kirkwood High School. She returned to school as an adult and graduated from Iowa State University with a bachelor's degree in anthropology in 1984.

She married her high school sweetheart and soul mate John Kluge in 1958. Their romance continued through 51 years of marriage and served as a model for building a successful and fulfilling partnership.

She was very talented, artistic, respected, admired and developed lifelong friendships and relationships in her community and abroad. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and friend to many and was passionate about creating meaningful traditions.

Her wide range of hobbies included cooking; entertaining; oil and water painting; sewing, including stitchery and quilting, resulting in many treasured gifts for her grandchildren such as baptismal gowns; antiques; and international travel to places such as England, France, Italy, Denmark, Germany, Hungary, Ireland, Kenya, Ukraine,

Egypt, Netherlands and Thailand. She was known for her holiday celebrations and traditions that are relished by her family and friends. She loved spending time with her husband, family and friends at their cabin in Leon. She also created a very special outdoor retreat referred to as the quiet area that was a favorite place to relax and reflect.

She was very active in the community and was involved in a broad range of clubs and associations. These include the ISU Women's Club and Couples Club, the Birthday Club, Bridge Club and Craft Group, and a wine tasting group.

She completed grant projects for the Department of Sociology and Anthropology at Iowa State University. She also restored artifacts for the Farm House Museum and various other museums. She received the Outstanding Service Award for her commitment to graduates of the College Veterinary Medicine at ISU from the Veterinary Medical Alumni Association in 1997. In addition, Joan was president of the Iowa Veterinary Medical Association (IVMA) Auxiliary in 1998.

Since 1962, she was an active member at Memorial Lutheran Church in Ames.

She is survived by her husband, Dr. John Kluge, of Ames; three children, Janna (Steve) Morrison, of Destin, Fla., Tom (Kathy) Kluge, of Chandler, Ariz., and Erika (Brian) Frake, of Delano, Minn.; one son-in-law, Mark Johnson, of Robbinsdale; and 10 grandchildren. She is also survived by her mother, Dorothy Kwentus; one brother, Jerry Kwentus; one sister, Judy Cole; and one sister-in-law, Margaret Hilmer.

She was preceded in death by her father, Kenneth Kwentus; one brother, Gene Kwentus; one daughter, Paula Johnson; and one granddaughter, Sarah Johnson.

Frances Manning Morgan

Aug. 27, 1923—
Dec. 11, 2009

Frances Manning Morgan, 86, of Ames, died at Northcrest Health Care Unit on Friday, Dec. 11, 2009. A memorial service will be at 1:30 p.m. Monday, Dec. 14, at the United Church of Christ-Congregational, Sixth Street and Kellogg Avenue in Ames. Burial will be at Ames Municipal Cemetery.

Frances Manning Morgan was born Aug. 27, 1923, in Keosauqua, Iowa, the daughter of Bates and Madge (Landes)

Manning. She graduated from Ames High School. She married Paul Morgan on Jan. 6, 1945, in Larchmont, New York.

During her 70 years living in Ames, Fran was a member of PEO Chapter HN for 50 years, ISU Faculty Women's Club, Questers. She was an active member of the United Church of Christ-Congregational. Fran and Paul made their home at Northcrest and appreciated the compassionate care Fran received in the Health Care Unit the last fourteen months.

Fran is survived by her husband, Paul, of Ames; sons, Jack (Randi), of Bainbridge Island, Wash., and Mike (Genelle), of Pella; daughter, Betty (John) Morgan Pittman, of Parker, Colo.; grandchildren: Tom (Andrea) Morgan, John Morgan, Lisa (Anthony) Alvino, Sara Morgan (John Shaffer), Kelly Pittman, Jeffrey Pittman and Jane Pittman; and great granddaughters Isabella and Catherine Alvino.

She was preceded in death by her parents; sister, Betty Friedmeyer; and brother, John Manning.

Sybil Stone

Aug. 26, 1921—
Dec. 5, 2009

Sybil Stone, 88, of Ames, died Saturday, Dec. 5, 2009, at Mary Greeley Medical Center. A gathering of friends will be at 2 p.m. Friday, Dec. 11, in the Social Room, Main Building, at Northcrest Retirement Community, 1801 20th St., in Ames.

Sybil Stone was born Aug. 26, 1921, in St. Louis, Mo., to John and Amelia (Burton) Maxwell. She grew up in St. Louis, moved to Ames Jan. 1, 1950, then to Wichita, Kan., in 1952, and returned to Ames in 1959.

On Aug. 11, 1942, she married Vernon Stone. Sybil was a homemaker and was called the "Neighborhood Mother." She loved animals and plants, was a volunteer at the Thrift Shop, and was a member of Questers for 50 years.

Survivors include her husband, Vernon Stone, of Ames; and one daughter, Laura Stone, of Knife River, Minn.

She was preceded in death by her parents; one son, David Burton Stone; and one brother, John Paul Maxwell.

She loved life in the full range and scope of its manifestations. This love was expressed by the empathy, care, nurture and welfare of plants, animals and people who came under her hand. Her son (who gave his life in service to his country) and her daughter were at the center of her concerns with a deep unwavering devotion. People whom she touched directly through her personality, her neighbors and their children as well as friends from the full spectrum of daily life knew her well, and knowing her, loved her. Indeed her spirit enhanced the whole community even beyond her personal reach.

She created her space on earth with unerring taste. She created a beautiful garden bearing this inscription, "Cherish all living things." We cherish the beautiful person who will live with us in memory.
