General Assembly—October

Making a Difference in Iowa

By Jerry Wiebel, Editor

Our Iowa Magazine

October 15, 2012 1:30 p.m.

Northminster Presbyterian Social Hall, 1416 20th Street

Jerry Wiebel, editor of Our Iowa, shared the story of the magazine “for Iowans by Iowans.” Founded by Roy Reiman, creator of a genre of country and country lifestyle magazines, who wanted the publication to represent, recognize and celebrate why Iowa is so special to all those who live here. The publication, based in Ames, is written by part-time field editors who live in each of Iowa’s 99 counties. Featuring gorgeous photos, entertaining and informative stories, the magazine shares all that is great about living and working in Iowa. From city profiles, most exciting weekend getaways to Iowa’s best dining experiences, Our Iowa covers it all.

“Making a Difference One Pie at a Time”

By Bernadette Siebert

November 19, 2012 1:30 p.m.

Northminster Presbyterian Social Hall, 1416 20th Street

Bernadette Siebert and her husband, Ken, members of Iowa Citizens for Community Improvement, shared how community improvement in Ames is being achieved through the Beyond Poverty program. The program has been successful in bringing people together across differences through hospitality and the building of intentional friendships.

Iowa State University Women's Club Spring Luncheon

Monday, April 15, 2013, at 12:00 noon
Scheman Building, Iowa State Center

On April 15, 2013, the ISUWC hosted a very successful Spring Luncheon. Entertainment was provided by Karyn Brinkmeyer and members enjoyed a "do you know the words sing along" down memory lane. Long-time members honored at the luncheon were:

Kitty Lamont and Betty Keeney - 25 years; Donna Walker, Anna Nilsson, and Carolyn Potter – 50 years and Betty Dahm, Ruth Harris and Dottie Fisher – 60 years.

Members who passed away during the year were remembered with a poem and included Ann Fey, Marian Heady, Kay North, Margaret Schwartz, Betty Skrdla and Doris Stukenberg.

ISUWC Award Fund recipients were announced at the Spring Luncheon and are included in the Scholarship section of the book. Outgoing ISUWC president Sylva Williams recognized and thanked the 2012-13 cabinet and the club's members for a great year. Incoming president, Cathy Halverson introduced the 2013-14 cabinet and theme, "Let's Have Fun."

IN MEMORIAM

Ann Frey, 84, of Ames, passed away on Wednesday, Jan. 2, 2013, at Green Hills Retirement Community. Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Monday, Jan. 7, at Collegiate United Methodist Church in Ames. A reception will be from 2 to 3:30 p.m. at the Green Hills Main Dining Room. Inurnment will be at a later date in Iowa State University Cemetery.

Ann M. Frey was born in Elyria, Ohio, to Wilmer C. and Lillian (Wright) Dunlap on March 9, 1922. She grew up in Ohio and Michigan and graduated from high school in Pontiac, Mich. She attended Eastern Michigan University and graduated with a bachelor's degree from Michigan State University in 1944. She married her college sweetheart, Kenneth Frey, in 1945. In 1953, Ann and Ken moved to Ames, where Kenneth was a professor in the ISU Agronomy Department.

She was a homemaker and volunteered in many community organizations. She founded the Friends of Foreign Wives organization for families of international graduate students, and was the president of Camp Fire Girls in Ames. She was an active member of the Collegiate Methodist Church, Chapter AA of PEO, ISU Women's Club, Mary Greeley Medical Center Auxiliary, and the Agronomy Women's Club. She traveled extensively with her husband and family, both internationally and in the United States. Ann and Ken moved to Green Hills Retirement Community in 1997.

She is survived by her husband, Kenneth; her three children, Terry, a professor at Georgia State University in Atlanta, Karen, a nurse practitioner in Berkeley, Calif., and Kevin, a faculty member at San Jose City College in San Jose, Calif.; and two grandchildren, Ben Frey and Andrew Brewer.

Adams Funeral Home in Ames is assisting the family with arrangements. Condolences may be left at www.soderstrumadams.com.

IN MEMORIAM

Marian Ruth Heady, 93, passed away on Saturday, June 30, at Mary Greeley Medical Center in Ames. A visitation will be from 5 to 7 p.m. on Thursday, July 5, at Adams Funeral Home in Ames. Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. on Friday, July 6, at Collegiate United Methodist Church in Ames. Burial will be in Iowa State Cemetery.

Marian was born on Aug. 23, 1918, in Lincoln, Neb., to Ernest and Clara Hoppert. She graduated from Lincoln High School and the University of Nebraska, where she was a member of Phi Upsilon Omicron and Omicron Nu honorary fraternities, Alpha Chi Omega sorority, and was on the Farmer's Fair Board for three years. She taught high school vocational homemaking in Nebraska City, Neb. On March 1, 1941, she married Earl O. Heady and resided in Ames from that time on.

She was past president of Faculty Women's Club (ISU Women's Club) and Chapter HN of the P.E.O. Sisterhood, member and officer of Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae Club, ISU Economics Women, International Student Furniture Exchange, and numerous church groups, including Collegiate United Methodist Women. She taught Sunday school for many years.

She entertained and assisted Earl's graduate students and families, who came from countries all over the world. They were like family to both Marian and Earl. Earl's position at Iowa State University led to extensive foreign travel for both of them. She also was very devoted to her own children and their families, of whom she was very proud. She had a wide variety of interests, and enjoyed her many friends and activities.

She is survived by one son, Stephen, of Portland, Ore.; one daughter, Barbara Heady (Stan Smith); two grandsons, Andrew Kling (Susan) and Nathan Kling (Elizabeth); and four great-grandchildren (Lydia, Miriam, Zoe, and Jonah Kling).

She was preceded in death by her parents; three sisters; her husband; one daughter, Marilyn; one granddaughter; and one grandson.

Memorials may be donated to Collegiate United Methodist Church or Northcrest Retirement Community.

IN MEMORIAM

Margaret Schwartz, 96, of Ames, died peacefully on Friday, Jan. 11, 2013, at Bethany Manor in Story City. At her request, there will be no formal memorial service. Instead, her family will sponsor a celebration of her life later this year.

Margaret was born on Aug. 15, 1916, to Fred and Emma Cordts in Boone. While delivering the Boone Sunday newspaper at the age of 12, she met her future husband, 19-year-old German immigrant Frederick Schwartz. Margaret loved to tell of taking one look at his odd European clothing and pointed shoes and taking off on her scooter, laughing. Their courtship began several years later, and they were married when Margaret was 19.

Margaret was an active and well-loved member of Collegiate Presbyterian Church, especially in serving many years on the church rummage sale committee. She also served several years as treasurer of the Faculty Women's Club and was a member of that organization until her death.

She is survived by her three daughters, Margaret Candler, of Annapolis, Md., Mary Lemley, of Long Island, N.Y., and Karen Craft, of Ames; six grandsons; and 11 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by one sister; one brother; her husband; and one son, Frederick Jr. ("Freddy").

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Collegiate Presbyterian Church in Ames or Bethany Life in Story City.

IN MEMORIAM

Elizabeth (Betty) Jeanne Skrdla, 92, passed away March 8, 2013, at Northcrest Community in Ames. Betty was born on Nov. 3, 1920, to Charles and Elizabeth (Early) Spalding in Lincoln, Neb. She graduated from Lincoln High School and the University of Nebraska, and earned her master's degree from Iowa State University in home economics. On June 9, 1942, she was married to Willis Skrdla. While Willis served in the U.S. Navy, Betty was employed by the Bureau of Standards in Washington, D.C. They then moved to Lafayette, Ind., where Willis pursued his doctorate degree at Purdue University. From there, they lived in Virginia before moving to Ames in 1957. During Willis's career in agronomy, they traveled internationally and also lived and worked for two years in India. In Ames, Betty was active in American Association of University Women, Ames Women's Club, Agronomy Ceres Club, DK Chapter of TTT, Kiwanis and Bethesda Lutheran Church.

Betty will be missed by her children: Ron (Marcia) Skrdla of Ames; Rob (Ning) Skrdla of Anchorage Alaska; and Kay (Jim) Thompson of Runnells. She is also survived by grandchildren: Carrie (Tom) Kujak, Joel (Shannan) Skrdla, and Molly, Emily and John Skrdla; and three great-grandsons.

Betty was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, sisters, Shirley Martin and Bev Kepka, and brother, Stan Spalding.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Tuesday March 12, at Bethesda Lutheran Church in Ames, with a visitation one hour prior to the service.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to Northcrest Community, 1801 20th St., Ames, Iowa 50010 or Bethesda Lutheran Church, 1517 Northwestern Ave., Ames, Iowa, 50010

IN MEMORIAM

Doris Elinora Switzer Stukenberg, 91, of Ballard Creek in Huxley, and formerly of Ames, died on Friday, Oct. 18, 2012, at Israel Family Hospice House in Ames. Memorial services will be at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 20, at Collegiate United Methodist Church in Ames. Private family burial will be in Resthaven Cemetery in West Des Moines prior to the memorial service.

Doris was born on April 9, 1921, on the family farm in Fairfield. She was the daughter of Clarence and Annie Duncan Switzer. Doris attended school and graduated from Fairfield High School in 1937, and furthered her education at Parsons College, State Teachers College of Iowa, Drake University and Northeast Missouri State University. Doris married August "Augie" C. Stukenberg III on Aug. 15, 1943, in Fairfield. She earned both a bachelor's of science and a master's of arts degrees from Drake University.

Doris taught for 36 years in Batavia, Aplington and Des Moines schools, served as a fraternity housemother in Martin, Tenn., and Ames for 16 years, and as a lodge hostess for YMCA of the Rockies in Estes Park, Colo., for nine summers.

Doris was a member of Collegiate United Methodist Church in Ames, DAR and Iowa State Women's Club. She volunteered at Reiman Gardens, the Ames Public Schools, Heritage Senior Center, McFarland Park and Mary Greeley Hospital. She was the recipient of a Points of Life Volunteerism Award from President Barack Obama.

Doris is survived by four children, Keith (Yvonne) Stukenberg, of Luxemburg, Wis., Beth (Richard) House, of Albuquerque, N.M., Dr. June Stukenberg (Robin) Hand, of Marietta, Ga., and Rose Stukenberg Bennett, of Fernandina Beach, Fla.; five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Augie, two brothers and two sisters.

The family suggests memorials be directed to Collegiate United Methodist Church or Reiman Gardens. Online condolences may be left at www.McLarensResthavenChapel.com. McLaren's Chapel and Stevens Memorial Chapel are assisting the family.
